

My arts are created specifically for public space, with the concept set by site. My works are diverse in the form, but I tend to simply artistic expression. Simple is very important to me, because the current social life is complicated and busy to me, so I'm inspired to create with the "simple beauty" concept, and convey the central theme by such concise way.

Zhou Jian-wen, 2013

